

INDIAN SYMBOLS

TRICOLOR

LOTUS

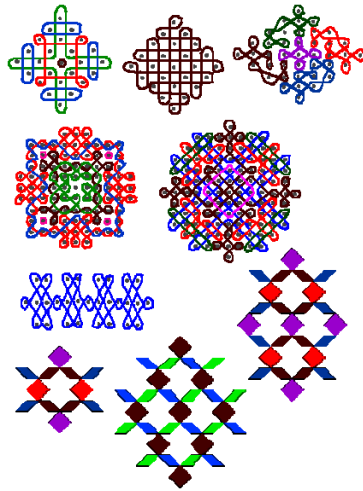

TIGER

PEACOCK

Kolam/Rangoli

Kolam (கோலம்) or rangoli is a rice-flour drawing done on the thresholds of Indian households by women and girls early in the mornings and early evenings. They are meant to be a welcome sign to the visitors. Kolam and rangoli with colored design can be very complex and large occupying several square feet. Rice-flour use is symbolic since humans want to share their food with small animals like ants and birds.

© 2010 www.somasundaram.name

INDIA INFO

MAP

RUPEE

COIN

भारत
SCRIPT